Exploring the future of Manitoba Museums is the theme for this year's conference. During the conference we will have presentations regarding how to engage visitors, youth, and volunteers. We will also be talking about succession planning, board recruitment, and how to plan for the unthinkable – closing a museum permanently.

Pre-conference workshop:

The workshop is yet to be determined. Please visit our website (www.museumsmanitoba.com) or call the AMM office for updated information.

Pre-conference workshop 2008

Sessions & Presenters:

Sheryl Kolt (Culture, Heritage, Tourism & Sport): Looking beyond the how to: A Visionary look at the life cycle of a museum, a talk from the idea perspective.

Sherry Dangerfield (Interpretive Planning): Looking Back to Engage the Future, a brief retrospective on how museums engaged the public in the past and what we might learn from this evolution as we move into the 21st century.

James Dykstra (Heritage Fairs): James has a great way to get youth and your community more involved with your museum without the use of technology - get involved with Heritage Fairs. James will talk about how easy it is to get involved and the benefits to be had.

Elaine Kisiow presenting at the 2007 conference

Manitoba Homecoming 2010: a presentation on this ambitious project celebrating the province's 140th birthday. A discussion on how museums can get involved will follow.

Noreen Mian (Volunteer Manitoba): How to engage the "Y" generation.

Paul Legris (Parks Canada): Learn more about Lower Fort Garry's new computer system that helps visitors learn about the Fort in a fun and interactive way.

Ken Kowalski (Senior Human Resource Consultant, Canadian Grain Commission): there are differences between people born in different decades and recognizing these differences can help you interact and work with all of them.

Ron Hayes (Centre for Professional Excellence): you can't plan for the future if you haven't got a good board. Ron will talk about board recruitment and retention.

Activities:

The Transcona Historical Museum will be hosting an informal evening of wine, cheese and pleasant conversation. Come mingle with other delegates and enjoy Transcona's hospitality while studying the Museum's displays of rare fire arms, Aboriginal history, and a large collection of butterflies and moths.

Banquet and Auction:

Food and fun and a chance to let one's hair down is always welcome after a day of learning. The banquet and auction is always a great diversion as delegates enjoy excellent food, entertainment, and the always uproarious auction.

Annual General Meeting:

The AGM is a time for you to be heard and to help plot the course of the AMM's future. There is no charge to attend the meeting and all AMM members are encouraged to do so, but non-delegates will be asked to pay $15 if they wish to join us for lunch. The AGM will take place directly after lunch on Saturday.

Tours:

The tour will begin at La Maison Gabrielle Roy and it will end at Le Musée de Saint-Boniface Museum for refreshments. There will also be a short walking tour between the two museums. New Flyer will drive delegates to and from Transcona Legion Hall in a classic bus.

When:

October 2 & 3 with a pre-conference workshop on October 1.

Where:

Transcona Legion Hall, 117 Regent Avenue East in Winnipeg.

Accommodations:

Rooms are available at the Canad Inns Transcona (826 Regent Ave West, ph. 224-1681, toll free: 1-888-332- 2623) for a special rate of $105. All rooms are non smoking.
