

ACI Aboriginal Programs invites Aboriginal professional artists, art administrators, arts and cultural organizations from all disciplines to submit proposals to conduct workshops, which will be considered for the 2008/2009 programming year. The Bannock and Tea Tuesdays workshop series is offered from September to June. Individual workshops can run from one to three hours.

All proposal submissions must include the following:

- ❑ Contact information – Workshop facilitator name, organization name, address, phone number, email, and website address
- ❑ Workshop title and description
- ❑ Workshop planned outcomes
- ❑ Materials and supplies required
- ❑ A minimum 250-word biography or resume, highlighting previous workshop/training experience and related professional skills and achievements

DEADLINE for submissions is August 5, 2008

Please forward proposals to Jaimie Isaac, Aboriginal Programs Manager . For further information please contact Jaimie via email or by phone at (204) 927-2787

Bannock and Tea Tuesdays is a monthly program designed to provide Aboriginal cultural workers with an opportunity to learn new skills, connect with industry leaders, and to network with those involved with Aboriginal arts.

Bannock and Tea Tuesdays workshop series provides affordable professional development training in an effort to promote and preserve Aboriginal arts and culture within the Manitoban arts milieu.