

The Manitoba Heritage Trust Program provides support for museums and archives, to start and grow endowments supporting their mission.

The program, initiated by The Province of Manitoba, is administered by The Winnipeg Foundation with support from the Association of Manitoba Museums and the Association for Manitoba Archives. For more information about the Manitoba Heritage Trust Program visit endowmanitoba.ca/manitoba-heritage-trust-program/

This session will provide:

- Details about the Manitoba Heritage Trust Program.
- Information about endowment funds at community foundations.
- Introductory fundraising fundamentals.

A must-attend event for staff and volunteers associated with museums, archives, historical associations and community foundations across Manitoba.

There is no registration fee for this workshop, but we do require registrations as space is limited.
