

In this webinar, Canadian Conservation Institute (CCI) photographers will:

- share ideas on how to fabricate studio equipment from common household items when working with a small budget
- highlight valuable open-source software programs and demonstrate their key features for editing cultural heritage images
- discuss the inexpensive tools that they use in the CCI studio

There will also be an opportunity for participants to exchange ideas.

Each session will be 2 hours in length and will be offered one week apart to give participants time to do their homework. Only 25 people will be able to take part so register early. Registration will be restricted to AMM Members only until September 30, after that registration will be open to anyone.

Who Should Attend: Anyone involved with a museum who would like to know how to create the best pictures possible of their artifacts while on a budget would benefit from taking this webinar.

Date, Location and Time: November 3 & 10, 2021, via ZOOM from 1 to 3 PM both days.

Instructors: Mylène Choquette and Germain Wiseman, Canadian Conservation Institute

Fee: Members: FREE
