

Where to buy supplies

Supplies like hand sanitizer, masks, gloves, and disinfectant wipes or sprays will be necessary for safely reopening museums. Purchasing these products may be difficult as demand is obviously high at this time. Here are some ideas to begin sourcing supplies. These retailers may or may not have supplies in currently in stock but may be able to place orders on back order.

Office supply stores like Office Depot or Staples

Hardware stores like Home Depot or Rona

Industrial supply stores like Macmor Industries or Grainger Industrial Supply

Patent 5 Distillery: handsani@patent5.ca is offering free hand sanitizer to front line non-profits. Bottles can be purchased for $10 per 250 ml bottle, with a minimum purchase of 2 bottles.

Farmery is not currently accepting bulk hand sanitizer orders but is hoping to reopen orders soon. Email handsanitizer@farmery.ca to ask for updates about orders resuming.

Capital K Distillery is producing antiseptic cleaners. Each 750 ml bottle costs $12 and each order has a 6 bottle minimum. Email orders@capitaldistillery.com for orders or more information.
